STUDIOPLEX HOSTS ART WALK ON JUNE 11, 2008

ATLANTA – June 5, 2008 – Studioplex, the 10-acre mixed-use development in Atlanta's historic Old Fourth Ward, will be hosting Art Walk on Wednesday, June 11 from 6 to 8 p.m. Studioplex's Art Walk is a free event combining live music by DJ Tabone, a gallery walk featuring the work of seventeen resident artists, and a wine tasting. "Please join us on Wednesday and learn more about our resident artists and their work– you can visit their studios, enjoy a glass of wine and even buy an original piece of art," invites Dillon Baynes, President of Orinda Corporation, one of the partners in the Studioplex development. "We even think of Studioplex itself as a work of art – come see the conversion of a 1906 cotton warehouse that now includes 112 residences and 18 offices in the heart of Atlanta."

Artists participating in Studioplex's Art Walk include Marcia Jones, Maurice Evans, Louis Delsarte, Ron Adams, Catherine Colquitt, Dante Yarborough, Montine, Matt Janke, Warren Green, Morrison Illustrations, Stewart McClean, Cartrell Coleman, Chuck Douglas, Howard Martin, Josh Traylor, Merrill Robinson and Saidi Chouaieb.
