FREE ‘SECOND WEDNESDAYS’ ART WALK SET FOR FEBRUARY 11 AT STUDIOPLEX
IN ATLANTA’S OLD FOURTH WARD
Highlights include the opening of “Emotional Layers” at Griffin Davis Art

ATLANTA – February 2, 2009 – Studioplex, the live/work community in Atlanta’s historic Old Fourth Ward, will host its next ‘Second Wednesdays’ monthly Art Walk (www.secondwednesdays.com) on Wednesday, February 11 from 6-8:30 p.m. One of the highlights of this month’s Art Walk is the opening of “Emotional Layers”, an art exhibit at Griffin Davis Art Gallery (www.griffindavisart.com) featuring mixed media and encaustic works by Atlanta artists Jason McGrady and Shannon Newby, as well as mixed media works by San Francisco artist Nina Gabelko.

In addition, this will be the first time that the Dale family – Phil, Lisa and their 11-year-old daughter Angelique - will share their collection of paintings and handmade jewelry in their home studio. The SCAD Sculpture class will present a collaborative project (an urban living space created from no cost commodities) and Janke Studio, Atlanta’s first complete glassblowing center, will have its amazing collection of glass objects on view.

Art lovers and collectors are invited to come enjoy a complimentary glass of wine, discover exciting new artists in the heart of Atlanta and listen to DJ Tabone spinning his favorite tunes.

With this month's Art Walk happening just prior to Valentine's Day, "a gift of art can be the perfect way to say I love you," notes John McNamara, owner of Griffin Davis Art Gallery. "Many of my clients have asked for more 'budget friendly' works of art, and I am pleased to offer a number of pieces in this show priced at $400."

"We are thrilled with the response to our 'Second Wednesdays' Art Walk program at Studioplex, says Dillon Baynes, principal of Studioplex LLC and one of the three partners in the in-town development. "And, if you want a complete evening out, you may want to add dinner at the brand-new Serpas True Food restaurant in the Pavilion at Studioplex. Come meet chef/owner Scott Serpas and enjoy his Louisiana focused cuisine – it's a whole different form of art!" (www.serpasrestaurant.com).
